TRANSFER ORDER
EDNY 03 CR 1061 (NG)

Based upon the letter of October 27, 2005, from Kenneth M. Smith, Assistant United States Attorney of the Western District of North Carolina, it appears that the September 26, 2003 change of venue order, transferring this defendant's case to the Eastern District of New York, was improvidently entered. At the time of the transfer, the defendant had not been arrested and therefore could not and did not join in the transfer motion filed on behalf of the other defendants.

Since it is undisputed that there is no basis for venue in this district, this case is hereby transferred to the Western District of North Carolina.

So Ordered.

Nina Gershon, U.S.D.J.

Re: United States v. Wen Xiong Chen, H-05-630-M
(WDNC Case No. 3:02CR233-MU-11)

03CR 1061(NG)

Dear Judge Gershon:

I write in response to your clerk Randall Jackson's questions regarding this matter. In a September 26, 2003 change of venue Order, Western District of North Carolina Chief Judge Graham C. Mullen transferred defendant Chen's case to the Eastern District of New York. At the time of this transfer, the defendant had not been arrested and, as a consequence, could not and did not join in the venue transfer motion filed on behalf of other defendants. Based upon my review of the case file, this defendant has resided in the Houston, Texas area for many years and has little to no ties to the Eastern District of New York.

More importantly, based upon my conversations with his lawyer Wendell Odom, the defendant does not want this matter handled in the Eastern District of New York and wants his case transferred back to this District. I have suggested to Mr. Odom that, pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 21, he file with this Court a venue transfer motion and proposed order. Of course, the United States will not oppose this motion.

Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns.

Very truly yours,

GRETCHEN C. F. SHAPPERT
UNITED STATES ATTORNEY
